

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We want to acknowledge and thank the many people who worked on and assisted in making this book a reality. These included Jennie Guilfoyle, Susan Schreiber, Sarah Bronstein, Kristina Karpinski and Ilissa Mira. Their writing and editing contributions were invaluable.

CLINIC is grateful for the comments, peer review, and sample documents submitted by the following persons: Jan Austerlitz, attorney in private practice, Berkeley, CA; Rebecca Bogyo, BIA representative, International Institute of the Bay Area, Redwood City, CA; Sarah Flagel, BIA representative, Immigrant Legal Services, World Relief, Wheaton, IL; Juan Gil Garcia, BIA representative, Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County, San Jose, CA; Veronica Garza, attorney, Immigration Consultation Services, Catholic Charities of Fort Worth, TX; Juan and Jane Laguna, Santa Ana, CA; Richard Gorman, BIA representative, UFW Foundation, Bakersfield, CA; Nancy Hormachea, attorney in private practice, Berkeley, CA; Kirsten (Kish) Inquilla, attorney, Immigration Legal Services, Catholic Diocese of Grand Rapids, MI; and Ruby Lieberman, attorney in private practice, San Francisco, CA. Others in the CLINIC network have been helpful. Thanks to all of you—your work guides and inspires us.

Portions of Chapters 2, 3, and 10 were previously published in Immigration Law & the Family, copyright ©2016 American Immigration Lawyers Association. Reprinted with permission.

Debbie Smith and Charles Wheeler